GOLD

LEGACY, LEADERSHIP,
LUMINESCENCE

THURSDAY, APRIL 4 – FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 2019

The more we travel in realms of gold, the more we are confronted by urgent challenges at all points along the continuum from extraction through design and fabrication to sale or investment. And the more we travel these realms, the more we realize that our solutions to these challenges must be driven by respect for materials, craft, and authentic expression, and a commitment to ethical sourcing and responsible practice. This year's International Gold Conference brings together a Who's Who in the gold community, including makers, miners, retailers, journalists, financiers, regulators, and environmentalists, in a tour d'horizon of this precious metal, focusing on specific, contemporary challenges along the golden continuum and how we can best meet them.
